

Chenavari and Lyxor are delighted to announce that the Lyxor Chenavari UCITS Credit Fund was chosen by the judging panel of HFM as a European Performance Award winner in 2021 for the category:

UCITS – CREDIT

Please see below the link published by HFM highlighting a list of the 2021 winners of the event: <https://www.hfmconnect.global/posts/hfm-european-performance-awards-2021-winners-announced>

Vincent Laurencin, Deputy CEO of Chenavari and Head of UCITS, commented:

"This award is a great recognition of the team's persistent hard work over the past 18 months. I would like to congratulate the co-PMs Demian Brasil and Stephane Parlebas, as well as the analysts and risk teams. This is an inspiration for us all to continue producing decorrelated performance in all sorts of market environments, with a strict drawdown control."

We would like to take this opportunity to show gratitude to our investors for their continued support particularly during the challenging period the industry has faced over the last 18 months.

Should you have any questions regarding this announcement or for further information on Chenavari please do not hesitate to contact our Investor Relations team.

Enquiries

Chenavari Investment Managers

Email: ir@chenavari.com

Telephone: +44 20 7245 4677